Text of the report:

Further to Current Report No. 5/2017 of February 24th 2017, the Management Board of 11 bit studios S.A. (the "Company") announces that the global release date for Moonlighter (PC, Xbox One and PS4 versions) has been set for May 29th 2018. Moonlighter has been developed by Spain's Digital Sun studio. 11 bit studios S.A. is the publisher of the game. The digital version of Moonlighter will be distributed via the world's leading gaming platforms, including Windows Store, Xbox Store, PlayStation Store, Steam, GOG and others. The retail price of the game in this channel will be USD 19.99 (or the equivalent in other currencies). Moonlighter will also be available in a physical boxed version, including an extended "Signature Edition" containing, among others, a double-sided medallion, a poster with an artwork from the game and a Jelly Monster figure. The retail price of the boxed edition of Moonlighter will be announced at a later date, on the opening of pre-orders for the game.
