Text of the report:

The Management Board of 11 bit studios S.A., with its registered office at ul. Brechta 7 in Warsaw (the "Company"), announces that the Company has in place three agreements to publish externally developed video games. The value of each agreement, in terms of 11 bit studios S.A.'s financial commitment, is significantly higher than that of any of the (external) publishing projects implemented by the Company to date.

The first of the agreements is for the publishing of a game with a working (code) name of Vitriol, produced by the Fool's Theory studio of Bielsko-Biała. The title will be classified into the RPG genre.

The second of the agreements concerns a game with a working (code) name of Foxhole. It has been produced by Spain's Digital Sun Games, the studio behind the development of Moonlighter. The publisher of that game was also 11 bit studios S.A.

The third title to be published by the Company has been produced by a foreign game development studio.

Further information about these productions, including their release dates, will be disclosed in due course.
